Unity

Unity

Our unity, then Islam will rise above
We gotta be like the Prophet of Allah ﷺ
In the shadow of this hate, that is building up for us
By the rejectors of faith and submission to Allah
We must rise up and be one
We are brothers you and I
Then the victory is ours, if we live or if we die
Muslim I am and I'm proud to say it Alive and real in an Islamic way
First off a suggestion: we have to question
The West's manifest
The media mislead you
Take a look at your own fear
Step out of the comfort zone
Get the picture clear
This is a case of emergency
A global urgency
So you're never too young or too old to get down...to business
Shaking the foundation
Can you see a nation plagued by miscommunication
It stinks!
Like America's links to state terrorism and devastation
They dare to say: "In God we trust, peace is a must"
Drop the moral bomb, then blame us!
I think not, Bush, man believe what you wanna believe Ha, ha...but that's not our way to what we want to achieve
The dividing and killing fills us with disgust
We'll keep on talking and writing, then we'll just...boo!
Raise up human consciousness like the Prophet ﷺ did Maintain peace and justice and never give up...our unity

The Ummah is awake, see them standing for Salat
Muslims in every place, understanding the Qur'an
See the martyrs in their blood, babies in mother's tears
Mighty armies, nuclear bombs
But there's one thing that they fear

I've been laden with all this Ameri-constipating
'coz I'm tired of all this faking like you from eating bacon
You must be mistaken to think we are breaking Ha, this is your worst nightmare in the making Picture David and Goliath, you gonna learn your lesson
I see the terror in your eyes
So your death is destined
Big ugly giant, small boy so defiant
Smug look on your face and a temper violent I'm gonna keep my calm
I'm gonna stand my ground
And I'll praise the Lord as you're falling down
See, the thing between you and me is like...
I believe in God and you worship life
You have crowned yourself and now you're lord of the flies
In your quest for power you have taken lives
You raped and plundered, covered truth with lies
Now your time is up and evil always dies

Blood from a Rock

They say my music is haram
Yet I speak from the Holy Qur'an
"Don't go changing our Islam" they say
I say: "Let's communicate in the language of the day"
Then I start trippin', b'coz me's a young blood, you know
With words like that me could jump up and shout
Yes, we are youth but we have to get it out

Guided by the truth, shout it out!
If we are misguided then how we must be?
You must speak a language for me brethren and me
Try to draw blood from a rock and you will find nothing the harder that you knock!
Open yourself, take the Book off the shelf
The generations change but the message stays the same
A mad-Muslim in this town, mixing melodies with the beauty he has found Dreams of unity, peace on common ground
But battles with ten soldiers making the same sound
Wind them up and let me tell you straight from the start Don't sit and judge me 'coz it's coming straight from Allah:
"Invite all to the ways of thy Lord with wisdom"
We all know the verse
Now, make you tell me what's wrong
Whipping up sound with my Islamic creation
Young people come, make we big up this nation

We Need to Heal

Assalaamu Alaykum waRahmatAllahi waBarakatahu, which means:
Peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah and His Blessings Now to the message that I am sending:
who'd have thought this young Catholic boy by the name of Shane would change his name his life would never be the same
I am he, 'Shaheed' - the martyr
Remember me?

Yes I remember you bra'! What's happenin'?
Boy, you've changed!

That's not all true
See, what I've really gained is knowledge of who I am, by God's Master Plan
I, like you, a product of society, chose to break the invisible chains that captured me Yeah, I was changed! But now I reverted to the Original: submission to His Will

Hey, all religions are the same
But why'd you leave Jesus (ﷺ) to worship Muhammad (ﷺ)?

My friend, you're wrong
Any Muslim who worships Muhammad ﷺ is not a Muslim That's not from me but the Book of God
There's only one God and Muhammad is His Messenger, peace be upon him
What's real funny though, you live amongst a people and you never care to find out for yourself
I know 'coz I was blinded by my fear and prejudice too...

Now you...!

...Hold on! I'm not through
And this is no argument, constructive reasoning can only lead to peace through mutual understanding
So back to what you were saying?

No, go on, let's hear it

Let me tell you about things you weren't taught in Sunday school and questions not asked 'coz you thought it wasn't cool
But now you're older, bolder
Why grab a hold of indoctrination? You're getting colder Face it, the only reason for what you're thinking and feeling is your family your race, culture, then it's your society
To be true, I can't blame you, only you can!
See, Jesus ﷺ was just a man, a holy prophet of God he did not die on the cross to save man's sin
For every burden bears a burden of its own
There is a tear on the face of Jesus Christ ﷺ misunderstood and not followed

If you wanna find the truth
Go to the root with integrity
You will see that this story is just not for real, and like I did
You won't like what you feel
But we all know the longing for belonging to what's right and not wrong
But first we need to heal...you know?!

Am I just a product of society?
A baby trained to be like his family thinks?
So, how do I know what is right or wrong?
I guess I got to search for myself if I wanna belong...to the right way

What you said earlier on about religions being the same
I've heard it again and again, don't play that game!
It's the echo of people who like to sound liberal or progressive Neither here nor there except for being passive Ignorance breeds a quarrel not religious discussion
And how can you talk of peace if you don't know your neighbour
Sounds more like tolerance to me
Narrow horizons for people who don't really want to see

Okay, what you're sayin' makes sense Maybe it means we're all worshipping God and is there such a problem in doing it in different ways?

We say worship God the way that He wants you to Innovative religions, just to suit comfort zones, bro'
And don't say everybody else is a...that's a mistake
If everybody is jumping in the fire, I'm not, are you?
It's not about quantity but quality of the way of life
Never cease to question is my suggestion
Like we believe it, it's plain and simple
Different cures for different sicknesses
Different messages for different times and different peoples
Abraham the great, Jesus the Messiah

Muhammad, the last Prophet
Peace be upon them all

*I've heard that the Qur'an was derived from the Bible
What do you say, I mean considering the similarities between them?*

Statements of bias and ignorance
Whoever said that does not know what he is saying
First of all, the word 'Bible' comes from the Greek word 'biblios', which means book
There's no comparison
Jesus ﷺ brought the Injeel - the Gospel
We don't have it in it's purest form
Not preserved by God for a reason
Like Jesus Christ ﷺ said: "I have not been sent but unto the lost sheep of Israel"
The Holy Qur'an is error free, kept as it was from the first It's here to quench the thirst of every seeker
I know you're not a believer
So go on, test it, dissect it
And I'll see you later at the Mosque!

Oneness

*A moment of silence for the death of consciousness, please
I seek refuge in Allah from the accursed Satan
In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful
Oneness*

The Message

The elevated one came with his completeness
He removed the darkness by his beauty
All together good were his qualities
Salutations upon him and his followers

He who assigns to Him different conditions does not believe in His Oneness nor does he who likens Him grasp His Reality
He who illustrates Him does not signify Him
He who points at Him and imagines Him does not mean Him Everything that is known through itself has been created and everything that exists by virtue of other things is the effect of a cause
He works but not with the help of instruments
He fixes measures but not with the activity of thinking
He's rich but not by acquisition
Time does not keep company with Him and implements do not help Him
His Being precedes time
His Existence precedes non-existence and His Eternity precedes Beginning
By His Creating the senses it is known that He has no senses
By the contradictories in various matters it is known that He has no contradictories
By the similarity between things it is known that there is nothing similar to Him Stillness and motion do not occur in Him and how can that thing occur in Him which He has Himself made to occur and how can a thing revert to Him which He first created and how can a thing appear in Him which He brought to appearance first?
The fact that He cannot have qualities of that created necessitates that He not be affected by things which affect others
He is that Who does not change
The process of setting does not behove Him
He has not begotten anyone lest He be regarded to have been born
He has not been begotten otherwise He would be contained within limits
He is too high to have sons, He is too purified to contact woman Imagination cannot reach Him so as to assign Him quantity Understanding cannot think of Him so as to give Him shape Senses do not perceive Him so as to feel Him
Hands do not touch Him so as to rub against Him
He does not change into any condition, He does not pass from one state to another Nights and days do not turn Him old, light and darkness do not alter Him
It cannot be said that He has a limit nor extremity nor end nor termination
Nor do things control Him so as to raise Him or lower Him Nor does anything carry Him so as to bend Him or keep Him erect
He is not inside things nor outside them

He conveys news but not with a tongue nor vocal
He listens but not with the holes of ears nor the organs of hearing
He says but does not utter
He remembers but does not memorise
He determines but not by exercising His Mind
He loves and approves without any weakness
He hates and feels angry without any painstaking
When He intends on creating someone He says 'Be' and there he is!
But not through voice that strikes ears that we call heard
His Speech is an act of His Creation
All things bow to Him and are humble before His Greatness
He would destroy the earth after its existence so all that exists on it would become non-existent
But the extinction of the world after its creation is no stranger than its first formation and invention
To Him is the return of all matters
The earth's initial creation was not in its power and the prevention of its extinction will also not be in its power
If it had the power to prevent it would have existed forever
When He made anything of the world, the making of it did not cause Him any difficulty and the creation of anything which He created and formed did not fatigue Him He did not create it to heighten His Authority nor for fear of loss nor harm nor to seek its help against any overwhelming foe nor to guard against any avenging opponent with its help nor for extension of His Domain nor for boasting or for largeness of possession against a partner nor because He felt lonely and desired to seek its company Then after its creation He would destroy it but not because any worry has overcome Him in its upkeep and administration nor for any pleasure that would accrue to Him nor for any cumbrousness of anything over Him
The length of its life does not weary Him so as to induce it to its quick destruction but Allah the Glorified has maintained it with His Kindness kept it intact by His Command and perfected it with His Power
Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar
